The House of Commons went into committee on the Land bill to-night. Clause 25 tee on the Land bill to-night. Clause 25 was passed. On reaching clause 26 Sir George Campbell, Liberal member for Kirk-caldy, moved an amendment imposing as a preliminary condition that arrangements for promoting emigration shall be dependent on obtaining sufficient security for the money advanced under that section of the bill. Gladstone said he did not object to the amendment, but he believed its principle had been fully provided for in a subsequent part of the clause. It was inaccurate, he declared, to suppose that the Canadian Government contemplated mere emigration of laborers, but emigration shall be made for them of means for their maintenance, as was done in
